MORNING WALK

Morning walk is very useful for health. It makes us healthy and smart. It has also many other advantages for us if we go for a morning walk daily.

I go for a morning walk daily. First I wake up and say my Fajar prayer and recite the Holy Quran. Then I go to Ali, which is my good friend. We both go for a morning walk to the riverbank daily. On the way we saw many chirping birds. They are singing sweet songs. Their songs amuse us. We also see the farmers ploughing in their fields. We also pass from many dairies and cattle forms. At last we reach on the riverbank. Many people come here for walk. Some are swimming in the river. We also take a bath there. Then we also walk on the green grass for some time. The dew drops shine like pearls.

Then sun rises and we come back to home, take our breakfast and go to our school.
